

Gettysburg was a 3 day battle where Lee advanced into Northern territory in Pennsylvania and lost over 1/3 of his forces. It happened from July 1-3 1863. It was the turning point of the war. Bloodiest battle of the war. 58000 killed or wounded.

Gettysburg Address was a famous speech given by Lincoln dedicating the cemetery at Gettysburg. It was a little over 2 minutes but is probably the most famous speech in American history. In it he rededicated our efforts to winning the war, and praised the bravery of the Union soldiers there.

Total war- Sherman practiced this in the South with his march through Georgia burning everything in sight. Anything that could be used to support the war effort in the south was destroyed. Homes, livestock, water wells, grain, etc. The Union Army burned and destroyed a 60 mile wide swath from Tennessee to Atlanta then to Savannah GA.

Appomattox- Lee surrendered to Grant's Union Army on April 9th, 1865.
